EDGREN'S COLUMN

WE are in the habit of thinking that athletic sports centre in this Western Hemisphere. They do. But we in the United States have no monopoly.

There is an island situated somewhere off the coast of Florida, and of late it has been decidedly on the athletic map. Every sport thrives there but horse racing and swimming. Horse racing is too tame, after the suppression of bull fighting; swimming is too exciting, on account of the sharks.

BUT baseball—well, the natives take to that like ducks to water. Baseball was introduced in Cuba almost at the same time that it was first played in the United States.

It soon became a favorite sport. The Cubans make excellent ball players. Mr. Chadwick (the father of baseball) is authority for the following statement:

"They are, with very few exceptions, good hitters, very fast fielders and swift base runners. As throwers their ability is certainly wonderful. It is a common feat with them to nail runners at the plate by long throws from the outfield. Let me tell you, these Cuban teams of today are a very hard nut to crack."

Right after the war Cuban teams began visiting the United States every summer.

They always travel under the management of Abel Linares, a well-known Cuban sporting man, and the team is known as the All-Cubans.

Last summer the All-Cubans was a rather weak team, yet they won something like eighty games out of 110 played against the strongest professional and semi-professional teams of the United States. A fact which serves to illustrate the strength of the All-Cubans is that the Hoboken, with Lindeman in the box, have not succeeded in winning a single game from them.

The strongest team in Cuba is the Habana (red), champion of last year; Almendares (blue) finished second.

THIS winter the All-Nationals, Cuban X-Giants (who, by the way, are not Cubans, but colored American players), the Lynns and the Tampas, have visited Havana and been badly beaten. The Cuban X-Giants and the Lynns made the better showing. The All-Nationals was composed of several strong League players. It is said the New York Nationals will visit Cuba next spring. The (old) of the Cubans is McGraw. He has played in Havana with American teams. When he went there he was in his prime, and the fact that he was very swift and that he was a yellow uniform is responsible for the name the Cubans (affectionately, of course) give him of Mono Amarillo (yellow monkey).

RAMON FOSTER, a young Cuban, twenty-two years old, is the champion fencer of the world. He defeated all the French, German, Belgian, Italian and Spanish swordsmen in Europe; then went to the St. Louis Exposition and beat Mr. Post and other famous American fencers, thus winning the championship of the world.

ALFREDO DE ORO, champion polo player of the world, is a Cuban, from Havana.

FELIX CARVAJAL, a poor Cuban boy, entered the Marathon race at the St. Louis World's Fair and finished fourth. According to the St. Louis newspapers, the young Cuban could have easily won, but he had not carried an ounce of food for twenty-four hours before the race. As he was pretty hungry he stopped half an hour to eat some fruit from an orchard that he found in his path. Yet he finished fourth. He ran the race wearing walking shoes and street clothes.

FEDERICO NARGANES, a wealthy young Cuban, twenty years old, belonging to the New York Athletic Club, is the champion middle-weight wrestler of that institution. A few days ago he defeated Mr. Newton, the former champion, who outweighed him eight pounds. Narganes won two straight falls.

NEXT year Losada and Rodriguez, two Cuban bicycle riders, will enter the six-day bike race. They are first-class men.

They are playing football and water polo in Cuba just now. The baseball championship will soon begin.

Bull and cock fighting are forbidden in Cuba. There is no written law barring boxing.

JAI ALAI is a Spanish game played in Cuba, as well as in Spain, France, Italy and Mexico. It is a great game.

They bet heavily on the game in Havana.

The present season is still very young, and the amount bet so far is nearly $500,000.

They also bet a lot of money on baseball.

All the Cubans, with few exceptions, are excellent swimmers, and as horse riders the Spaniards can tell how they used to like Macao's and Gomez's cavaliermen.

SALARIES INCREASED.

RUFFALO, Jan. 6.—The ball players of the Eastern League are to get a raise in salaries. The Salaries and Players' Committee of the League met here and decided to report to the league at the annual meeting in New York this morning in favor of increasing the club salary limit to $3,500. It is now $2,400.

The committee will also report in favor of a rule limiting each club to fourteen players on its payroll from June 1 to Sept. 1.

Myer Printstein, World's Champion, Broad Jump. Wm. R. Knobel, Nat'l. Jr. Champion, 220 yards. John Flanagan, World's Record, 50 lb. weight, 16 lb. hammer. Harvey Cohn, Met. Champion, mile. Martin Sheridan, World's Champion, Discus. John Joyce, American Champion, 10 miles, 5 miles. George Bonham, American Indoor Champion, 2 miles. J. T. Bandmann, Met. Jr. Champion, half-mile. C. C. Nasmith, American Champion, 2 miles. George E. Hull, Met. Jr. Champion, 220 yards. H. Williams, Met. Jr. Champion, Pole Vault.

STRANG SIGNED WITH M'GRAW

Third Baseman Who Played with Brooklyn Last Season and Was Released Will Be Giant Again Next Year.

Sammy Strang, who covered third base for the Brooklyn National League team for two seasons, and was released by Manager Ned Hanlon last October, has been signed by Manager John McGraw to play with the champion Giants next year. After Strang was let go by Hanlon, McGraw secured his services for next season.

McGraw realizes that Strang can play good ball if he keeps in the right path, and as a few months ago, with terms, to play with the Giants next season. As the terms were satisfactory to Strang, he signed his signature and forwarded the contract to Fred Knowles, secretary of the New York Club, who received it to-day.

Strang played two seasons with the Giants before he was released to the Brooklyn. He is well known to the baseball fans in this vicinity. He played great ball for the Giants the first season he was with them, but became careless during the second season, which resulted in his being released.
